

Biography 2023 - Short version

Introducing Hand-made, the Scottish DJ duo unlocking doors across the world with their love for the fresh and unknown. With roots in the bustling Edinburgh club scene, they began supporting renowned artists such as Optimo, Bradley Zero, and K-Hand, leaving their mark on the local scene. Lockdown gave them the opportunity to obsess over records and CDs, resulting in a supreme collection of mixtapes and podcasts. Their eclectic sound, stemming from their love for records, has earned them residencies, headline slots, and a successful club night of their own at the world famous, Sneaky Pete's.

Lewis and Euan have taken their collection across borders, performing in London, Ibiza, Paris, and a tour in Brazil. Their bi-monthly radio show on EHFM features guests from the digging scene across the world. Sweet and humble as individuals, they deliver added tenacity when behind the controls, curating a vibe of the expected unexpected - from Caribbean grooves to deep dug hip-hop, through to funk, house and progressive. Whether it's a listening bar, festival, or thronged-out club, Hand-made know how to make people bask in bliss or rollick in the rave.
